Appreciate a sense of Detroit's local flavor and vitality by touring the main areas of Corktown and Mexicantown, including Michigan Avenue, historic neighborhoods dating back to the 1830's, Roosevelt Park, Vernor and Bagley, and the Mexicantown pedestrian bridge. Hear about the challenges and opportunities of these neighborhoods, the diverse population make-up and cultural preservation, and become more aware of the extensive positive investment via rehabilitation efforts and community building. This outing includes a visit to HoneyBee Market and a tasting of some Mexican specialties. You will also visit St. Anne de Detroit Catholic Church, the second oldest Catholic parish in the United States with the oldest stained glass windows in the city.

Includes: All arrangements with locations, deluxe bus transportation, guide, admissions and tastings.

Cost: $60.00
